

PHA6279 HIT Fall Seminar 2013

Health Information Technology: Improving Quality and Value

PHA 6279 Fall Seminar (1 cr)

12-13 October 2013

University of Florida College of Pharmacy

HPNP Building Auditorium

Gainesville, FL

Tentative Agenda

Saturday, 12 October
12:00pm - 1:00pm	Registration	Staff
1:00pm - 1:05pm	Welcome and seminar overview	Tommy Smith, PharmD, JD
1:05pm - 2:05pm	Health Information Technology Policy and Regulations Overview of the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health (HITECH) Act	Clinton Mikel, Esq Health Law Partners, PC
2:05pm - 3:05pm	HIT and health care professional involvement Increasing data access for decision-making, improving accuracy, and improving outcomes	Shelly Spiro, RPh E-Health Information Technology Collaborative
3:05pm - 3:20pm	Break
3:20pm - 4:20pm	Expanding access to e-prescribing and electronic health records Health Information Exchange, Meaningful Use, role in expanding electronic access and value	Ajit Dhavle, PharmD, MBA SureScripts
4:20pm - 5:35pm	Speaker Panel Discussion	All speakers

PHA6279 HIT Fall Seminar 2013

Saturday, 12 October
5:35pm - 5:45pm	Break; transition to workgroup meeting rooms
5:45pm - 7:00pm	Student workgroup meetings
7:00pm	Seminar buffet dinner

Sunday, 13 October
8:00am - 9:00am	HIT as a research tool to improve outcomes; case studies Data accuracy, integrity, and research applications to improve clinical practice	Christopher Harle, MS, PhD Health Services Research, Management & Policy, College of Public Health, University of Florida
9:00am - 10:00am	Improving public health with patient-level technology Modifying patient behavior through virtual health assistants (avatars)	Chrystian Pereira, PharmD Family Medicine and Community Health, School of Medicine, U of MN
10:00am - 10:15am	Break
10:15am - 11:15am	Role of telemedicine in improving health outcomes Increasing patient engagement in the healthcare experience	Dale C. Alverson, MD Professor Emeritus of Pediatrics and Regents' Professor Professor, Health Sciences Center Library and Informatics Center Medical Director, Center for Telehealth and Cybermedicine Research University of New Mexico
11:15am - 12:30pm	Speaker Panel Discussion	All speakers
12:30pm - 1:00pm	Buffet lunch
1:00pm - 2:00pm	Student workgroup presentations
2:00pm - 2:15pm	Final announcements
2:15pm	Dismissal	